VASSAR INSTALLS DR. MACCRACKEN

Inauguration of New President a Fitting Climax to

In the presence of alumnae, delegates from colleges and universities in the United States and in foreign countries, invited guests and a few priviliged undergraduates he was installed as successor to the president emeritus, the Rev. pr. James Monroe Taylor. The exercises were held in the chapel, following cises were held in the chapel, following burg. the academic procession from Taylor and Rockefeller halls. Reckefeller halls.

When the applause which followed the address by George Lyman Kittredge, professor of English in Harvard University, had subsided William Caldwell Plunkett Rhoades, chairman of the board of trustees of Vassar College, who predicted in the correlates in the correlates. sided at the exercises, introduced Dr. MacCracken, who received an enthusiase greeting as he turned toward the accept with humility the charge that has been laid upon me and with all hope in the world," he said, and then Vassar's new president will have to meet. Virginia Cocheron Gildersleeve, dean of Barnard College, spoke for the women's colleges affiliated with the men's colleges in the United States.

SPORTSMEN AT GREENBRIER Hunters Arrive for Opening of Senson on Friday. WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Oct. College's Jubilee.

College's Jubilee.

AGAINST ELECTIVE STUDY

AGAINST ELECTIVE STUDY

POUGHEREEPSIE. Oct. 13.—The semi
College's Jubilee.

White SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Oct.
13.—Many sportsmen have arrived for the opening of the shooting season on Friday next. The Greenbrier Hunt Club has started its regular Wednesday and Saturday meets. The hounds met at Oakhurst to-day and had an hour's run with a field of twenty.

Several teas and dinners were given at Elmhurst. Mrs. Laurence Armour of Chicago entertained there at a dinner

POUGHREEPSIE, Oct. 13.—The semicentennial celebration at Vassar College came to a close to-day with the inauguration of Dr. Henry Noble MacCracken as its president.

Adalogates

W. EARL DODGE ENTERTAINS. Springs Guests Take Muc Interest in Tennis.

Hor Springs, Va., Oct. 13.—The keen interest shown in the semi-final tennis matches kept the lawn surrounding the courts thronged with spectators at both the morning and afternoon sessions. The fine weather also brought out a full force of goifers and numerous riding

W. Earl Dodge entertained a large company at dinner in the Japanese room prior to last night's cabaret show. Mr. and Mrs. Wolcott Griswold Lane of New York and Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Tolley, after spending several weeks here, have returned to their homes. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Dallas B. Pratt have taken one of the Homestead cottages for the autumn.

Miss Lillian B. Hyde, former woman golf champion, and her mother, Mrs. Richard B. Hyde, arrived to-day for the mother, Mrs. John R. Williams, and sister, Mrs. Joseph Leiter. To-day's registrations include Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Tod, New York; M. B. Beltz Hanover, Irvington, N. Y.; Mrs. Alexander W. Biddle, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Blackburn, Pittsburg, and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Tobin, San Francisco.

SIR GERARD A. LOWTHER ILL

Former Secretary of Embassy at Washington in Serious Condition LONDON, Oct. 13 .- Sir Gerard Augustus Lowther, Privy Councillor, is seri-ously ill, it was learned to-day.

Sir Gerard Augustus Lowther was a one time secretary of the British Em-bassy in Washington. He was married in 1905 to Alice Atherton Blight of Philadelphia. Sir Gerard has been at various times British Ambassador to Turkey, Minister to Morocco and to Chile, Consul-General in Budapest and Secretary of the British Legation in

DE Henry Noble MacCratter

TABLE WEDDING SOV. 6.

Asserts of Prome-Promepresent interest interest with a control of the state of the

Miss Mary Frances McPartland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. McPartland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. McPartland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. McPartland, the interest which is the critical element in American education.

"In this sense the college will never become, as it has been described, the home of lost causes"; it will forever be the nursery of new causes. The fulfilment of these great needs of national life may be far distant, but if the need at least is perceived, the devotion of the student will not be wanting."

Order of Academic Procession.

The academic procession preceded the finaucural ceremonies and was made up as follows:

**Knowles**—Koffman.**

Miss Mary Frances McPartland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. McPartland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. McPartland, daughter of Subject of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. McPartland, the property of Montclair. N. J., were married on Tuesday in the Church of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. The Rev. William Farrel officiated, assisted by the Rev. John McGowan and the Rev. Thomas Murray. Thomas Stapleton, Jr., was best man and Miss Anne McPartland, the oride's sister, was maid of honor. The winder of Academic Procession.

Order of Academic Procession.

The academic procession preceded the finaucural ceremonies and was made up as follows:

**Knowles**—Koffman.**

Miss Mary Frances McPartland, daughter of Mr. McPartland, the Perpetual Help. The Rev. William Farrel of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. The Rev. John Moses Siber of Norther of Academic Procession.

Miss Mary Frances McPartland, daughter of Mr. McPartland, the Perpetual Help. The Rev. William Farrel on the Rev. John Moses Siber of Norther of Norther of Academic Procession.

Miss Mary Frances McPartland, daughter of Mr. McRowd of Sixty-first street, New York, and Dr. William Francis Grady of Interest in $191.340 of Norther of Sixty of Interest in $191.340 of Norther of Sixty of Interest in $191.40 of Interest in $191.41 of Interest in $191.41 of Interest in $191.41 of Interest in $191.

"All attacks were easily repulsed."

FRANK C. HOLLINS DIED OWING $50,000

PRINCETON SEMINARY LENOX GUEST ROSTER CONTINUES TO GROW INSTALLS PRESIDENT

WEDDINGS

Gradus With magnetic the cases of the time of the great proper will be the case of the time of the great proper will be the case of the time of the case of the case of the time of the case of the time of the case of the case of the case of the time of the case of the case of the case of the time of the case of the case

NEW ART NOW ON VIEW AT MUSEUM

Notable Addition Made to the Collection of Tapestries.

MORE MEMBERS WANTED

The Metropolitan Museum of Art put on public view yesterday a large Gothic hunting tapestry that is a valuable addition to the museum's already impor-tant collection of tapestries. It is twenty-two feet long and about ten feet

All the flags on the poince stations in this city will be at half mast until after the funeral, according to an order issued by Commissioner Woods yesterday. broad and represents a party of eighteen sential to the art, but the quality of the tapestry has been greatly enhanced by

of primitive carvings.

In the builetin of the museum for Oc-In the bulletin of the museum for or tober an earnest plea is made for an increase in the museum's membership, it is feared, will cause embarrassment in the museum's activities, as the dues of German residents of Passalc, died the museum's activities, as the dues of members are used in defraying the expenses of administration. The city government makes an annual allowance to the museum, but because of the financial the museum, but because of the financial stringency the allowance will be smaller this year than ordinarily. Even with the city's contribution there is a deficit of about $100.000 per annum. Dr. Robinson said yesterday that most of the museum of the in this country had a superior of the museum.

FATHER SULLIVAN'S FUNERAL. JURY IS TOLD OF A

Cardinal Farley Will Honor Late Police Chaptain. Police Commissioner Woods announced yesterday the arrangements for the fu neral of the late Rev. Francis J. Sullivan, a chaplain of the Police Department. who will be buried from St. Aloysisus's Roman Catholic Church, of which he was the rector, Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Cardinal Farley, Bishop Hayes and more than 2,000 men in the Police Department will attend the funeral.

The funeral cortege will be led by the police band, followed by the Honor Legion, under the command of Inspector Bolan. Father Sullivan's body will be escorted by a regiment of police infantry and cavalry. Chief Inspector Max Schmittberger and all the inspectors not assigned to duty will command the po-

All the flags on the police stations in

Gilbert Holmes Crawford.

Gilbert Holmes Crawford of the who claims to have been oppressed is clifford C. Fischer of 1493 Broadway. Massau street, and formerly a member of the Board of Education of New York, died yesterday in his home at 296 New York avenue, Brooklyn, from the technique of the general distry would appear to date from about the year 1500, although in the general disposition of the figures it resembles the so-called Burgundian hangings of a generation earlier.

The weaving is bold and not more than twenty or thirty colors are used, in contrast with the 14,000 colors which the Gobelin worker of to-day deems estable to the art, but the quality of the contrast with the qua tapestry has been greatly enhanced by this simplicity of execution, and there is no lack of richness. The new purchase is placed on a wall in the handsome gallery of tapestries, where formerly the Chinese porcelains of Mr. Morgan were shown.

Mrs. Catherine Freel.

Other recent acquisitions now to be seen in the museum are examples of rare Persian ceramics, including some handsome antique tiles inscribed with texts from the Koran, which were presented to the museum by Mrs. Frederick Ferris Thompson. A sculptured head from Cambodia will interest the student of primitive carvings.

Mrs. Catherine Freel.

inson said yesterday that most of the museum cities in this country had a larger list of members in proportion to the size of the cities than the New York museum has, and he could see no reason why New York should lag behind Boston in that respect.

The builetin also gives out an official statement in regard to the bequest to the museum of the collection of the late Theodore M. Davis of Newport. It seems that, upon the condition that his estate should prove large enough to carry out certain specified gifts of money to relationship.

BRENTANO'S STANSANTE

Personal Greeting Cards -individual artistic. Orders should be placed at once. 681 Fifth Avenue

CORRECT MOURNING Priestleys

SILK WARP HENRIETTA TRIMMED WITH

Courtauld's BLACK ENGLISH CRAPE

VAUDEVILLE TRUST

Suit Charges Organization Barred Booking Agent From Signing Foreigners.

MARTIN BECK ON STAND

A jury was impanelled before Judge Learned Hand in the United States District Court yesterday to hear a theatrical booking agent's story of how he was driven out of business by the so-called restrictive policies and blacklisting methods practised by the so-called vaudeville trust. The agent

a theatre in one of the "trust

a theatre in one of the "trust" circuits unless he is engaged by a trust booking concern. Fischer will call Oscar Hammerstein as one of his witnesses.

The first witness called to the stand by the plaintiff yeterday was Martin Beck, manager of the Orpheum Circuit and treasurer of the Central Vaudeville Promotion Company. His testimony was required by the plaintiff to show the close connection between the circuit and close connection between the circuit and the booking concern. He admitted that the salary of the Promotion company's booking agent was paid by the Orpheum Circuit. He denied, however, that any particular set of stockholders controlled particular set of stockholders controlled the circuit.

"Do you know Samuel Hodgdon?" asked Max D. Steuer, attorney for the plaintiff, referring to the general booking agent of the United Booking Office. Well, I meet him every day in the barber shop," replied the witness.
"Have you a standing engagement to meet him at specified times in the barber shop?" asked the attorney.

This question went unanswered.
Beck will continue his testimony at 10:30 o'clock this morning. At the conclusion of the Fischer case another suit for $300,000 under the Sherman law brought against the same of the Baltimore Hippodrome has passed to Marcus Loew of New York, who has requested that no flowers be sent.

OODGE -Arthur Pillsbury Dodge, October Funeral services 6 P. M., Thursday, Octaber 14. Interment at Wakefield,

FOWLER -Thomas Powell Fowler, after a brief lilness at his summer residence. Belair, Warwick, N. V., on Monday, October 11, in the sixty-fourth year

Church Madlen avenue and Seventy-first street, Saturday, October 16, at 12 noon. Interment at convenience dence, 321 West Ninety-fourth street, Mary Adams Lee, wife of Wesley Harper, and daughter of Benjamin uneral services at St. Agnes's Chapel West Ninety second street, near Co-tumbus avenue, on Thursday, October

PLUVAN — Rev Francis J. paster of St. Aloyslus Church. 219 West 132d street. Chapiain New York Police Department, State Chapiain Knights of Columbus, Chaptain of St. Joseph Council, member of Royal Arcanum, departed this life, October 12 Divine office, Priday evening 3, mass, Saturday morning, 10:30. Interment

WILLIAMS -On Wednesday, October 13, 1915, Edward L. Williams, son of the late John and Elizabeth M. Williams. Friends are invited to attend the fu-neral services at his late residence, 328

Jefferson avenue. Brooklyn, on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. UNDERTAKERS.

FRANK E. CAMPBELLE 250-57

RELIGIOUS NOTICE

GO-TO-CHURCH SUNDAY," OCTOBER 13.